Isaiah 38:9-14

A writing of Hezekiah king of Judah after his illness and recovery:

I said, “In the prime of my life must I go through the gates of death and be robbed of the rest of my years?”

I said, “I will not again see the Lord Himself in the land of the living;

no longer will I look on my fellow man, or be with those who now dwell in this world. Like a shepherd’s tent my house has been pulled down and taken from me.

Like a weaver I have rolled up my life, and He has cut me off from the loom; day and night you made an end of me.

I waited patiently till dawn, but like a lion he broke all my bones; day and night you made an end of me. I cried like a swift or thrush, I moaned like a mourning dove. My eyes grew weak as I looked to the heavens. I am being threatened; Lord, come to my aid!”

Isaiah 40:7-8

"But God said to that man, 'You fool! This very night your life will be demanded from you. Then who will get what you have prepared for yourself?'

Jesus said, "This is how it will be for those who store up things for themselves but are not rich toward God!"

Isaiah 38:15-20

But what can I say?

God has spoken to me, and He Himself has done this.

I will walk humbly all my years
because of this anguish of my soul.
Lord, by such things people live;
and my spirit finds life in them too.

You restored me to health
and let me live.

Surely it was for my benefit
that I suffered such anguish.

In your love you kept me
from the pit of destruction;
you have put all my sins

behind your back.

For the grave cannot praise you,
death cannot sing your praise;
those who go down to the pit
cannot hope for your faithfulness.

The living, the living—they praise you,
as I am doing today;
fathers tell their children
about your faithfulness.

The Lord will save me,
and we will sing with stringed instruments
all the days of our lives
in the temple of the Lord!
