Acts 2

“When the day of Pentecost came, the followers of Jesus were all together in one place. Suddenly a sound like the blowing of a violent wind came from heaven and filled the place where they were sitting. They saw what seemed to be tongues of fire that separated and came to rest on each of them.

All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages as the Spirit enabled them.... such that a crowd came together in bewilderment, because each one heard their own language being spoken....

Utterly amazed, they asked: “Aren’t all these who are speaking Galileans? Then how is it that we hear them declaring the wonders of God in our own tongues?” Amazed and perplexed, they asked one another, “What does this mean?”

Peter said to the Pentecost crowd, "So, repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins. And you too will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit...."

Those who accepted Peter's message were baptized, about three thousand that day...and the Lord added to their number daily those who were being saved." Acts 2
